

Cutting Files and Templates

© 2015 Judy Headrick

Thank You

Thank you for visiting Handcrafted Greetings. I hope these files will help inspire your creativity and that you will come back and visit again soon.

About These Files

I have included three formats in this zip file. The svg file with all layers included is in the top folder. You will find individual files for each layer in the layers folder. If you want to print the template for cutting by hand, you will find a png template in the templates folder. Only the top layer template is provided in png format.
